

DETAILED CONTENTS

1

POWER OF LEGISLATION

1. Domestic Violence Act—Protection for women	1
2. Domestic Violence Act—Smooth machinery to ensure justice to oppressed women	1
3. Legislative compassion was in favour of a woman in a terminated marriage and who has not re-married	2
4. Legislative intent—To be gathered from provisions in which any expression has been used—Overall facts and circumstances of the case to be considered	2
5. Power of Legislature—Central Government has a power to frame rules in furtherance of purpose—Procedure for disposal of application under Section 12 of the Act	2
6. Words “shared household”—Definition and Interpretation of—Legislative intent	3

2

OBJECT AND PURPOSE OF THE ACT

1. Access to shared house.	10
2. According to the Hindu Marriage Act—Marriage can be void or voidable.	10
3. Act does not create any additional right in favour of wife regarding maintenance.	11
4. Acts of violence done prior to coming into force of Act.	11
5. Adding or subtracting words from statute—Intention of the Legislature.	11

6. Admission of right—Cannot be allowed to be defeated by subsequent proceeding.	12
7. Aggrieved person—Maintainability of application—Existence of domestic relationship.	12
8. Aggrieved person—Must be treated sympathetically.	13
9. Allegations of offences under IPC.	13
10. Alternative accommodation.	13
11. Alternative construction suitable to advance course of justice—Can be resorted to for effective result.	14
12. Applicability of the Domestic Violence Act.	14
13. Ascertainment of legal status for the purpose of succession, etc., will have to be distinguished certainly from the ascertainment of the legal relationship for the purpose of mere avoidance of vagrancy.	15
14. Breach of Protection Order—Jurisdiction of Family Court.	15
15. Change of scope of Legislation—Not within competency of court.	15
16. Claim for stridhan —Competent.	16
17. Concept of de facto wife/illegitimate wife.	16
18. Concept of “Wife” under the Code.	16
19. Construction of statute—Statute to be read as a whole.	17
20. Construction of statutory provision—Cardinal principals—To be constructed in consonance with Legislative intent to remove any ambiguity.	17
21. Demand of dowry.	19
22. Determination of meaning of words used in Statute—Not to be determined by keeping preconceived notions.	20
23. Dismissal of proceeding on the basis of admission—Competency of Court even on its own motion.	20
24. Divorce by Foreign Court.	21
25. Divorced persons when may marry again.	21
26. Domestic relationship continues so long as the parties live under the same roof and enjoy living together in a shared household.	22
27. Domestic Relationship—Scope of.	23
28. Domestic Violence—Includes economic abuse in it’s fold.	23
29. Domestic Violence—Maintenance and Rent granted.	24
30. Domestic Violence—Object of—Protect the constitutionally guaranteed rights of women.	24
31. Domestic Violence—To be construed in its wider spectrum as intended by Legislation.	24
32. Domestic Violence Act—Civil and Penal provisions.	25
33. Domestic Violence Act—Competent Court.	25
34. Domestic Violence Act—Complaint and Reliefs for women.	26

35. Domestic Violence Act—For providing more effective protection to the rights of women.	26
36. Domestic Violence Act—Forum and facilitate to the complainant.	27
37. Domestic Violence Act—Jurisdiction of Magistrate—Available at every small place.	27
38. Domestic Violence Act—Legal provisions to give civil rights to women—Have criminal consequences as well.	28
39. Domestic Violence Act—Legislature intent to provide various rights to women.	28
40. Domestic Violence Act—Object to prevent vagrancy and destitution.	29
41. Domestic Violence Act—Object to provide more effective protection to helpless and shelterless women.	29
42. Domestic Violence Act—Objects and Reasons to give effective protection rights to women.	29
43. Domestic Violence Act—Protection Order to women.	30
44. Domestic Violence Act—Purpose—Objects and Reasons of the Act.	30
45. Domestic Violence Act—Purpose—Only two penal offences have been stipulated under Sections 31 and 33 of the Act.	32
46. Domestic Violence Act—Purpose—To give civil rights to women—Nature of proceedings—Quasi civil and criminal.	33
47. Domestic Violence Act—Purpose—To redress grievance and give relief of residence and monetary relief.	33
48. Domestic Violence Act—Remedy under Civil Law—Procedure.	34
49. Domestic Violence Act—Social Welfare Legislation for the benefit of women.	35
50. Domestic Violence Act—To provide speedy relief to women and to prevent incidents of domestic violence.	35
51. Enactment of Statute—Purpose of—Remedy for protection of women.	36
52. Enactment of Statute—To uplift the status of women in the society.	36
53. Evidentiary admission—Nature of—Not conclusive.	37
54. Ex parte order—Service of Notice—Procedure to be followed.	37
55. Excluding female members from array of respondents—Not intended by Legislature.	38
56. Exercise of Inherent Powers.	38
57. Foreign judgment—Divorce granted by foreign court.	39
58. Giving interpretation to render part of statute as meaning less—Must be avoided.	39

59. Harmonious construction of Provisions—For protection of aggrieved women.	40
60. Impleadment of mother in-law.	40
61. Importance of woman virginity in India.	40
62. Initiation of proceedings.	41
63. Interpretation function of Court—To discover true Legislative intent.	41
64. Interpretation of Statute.	42
65. Interpretation of Statute—Each and every word used must be given meaning there of.	46
66. Interpretation of Statute—Literal rules must be followed ordinarily.	47
67. Interpretation of Statute—Words used therein—Cannot be read in isolation.	47
68. Interpretation of statutory words—To be interpreted in the sense intended by Legislation.	47
69. Interpretation which leads to absurdity—Not to be accepted.	48
70. Introduction of the Domestic Violence Bill.	48
71. Judicial admission—Stands on higher pedestal than evidentiary admission.	49
72. Jurisdiction of Court to entertain complaint—The court where respondent is working for gain.	49
73. Jurisdiction to entertain complaint—To be governed by Criminal Procedure Code.	50
74. Language of words used in statute clear and explicit—Court must give effect to be intended.	50
75. Language used susceptible of two meanings—Legislative intent had to be resorted for interpretation of such words.	51
76. Legitimacy of children of void and voidable marriages.	51
77. Liability to pay permanent alimony and maintenance to the wife in an annulled marriage is recognized by law as per the personal law applicable to the parties.	51
78. Liability under Section 125 is only on the husband to maintain his wife.	51
79. Maintainability of application before Family Court—Muslim woman.	52
80. Maintenance can be claimed only by a legitimate and legal wife and not by a woman who had shared a relationship in the nature of marriage.	52
81. Mentioning of one requirement at one place and non mention at another—Only reasonable interpretation can be restored.	53
82. Mere fact that divorce has been obtained by the husband on account of matrimonial contumaciousness of the wife	