

CONTENTS

Preface	v
Contents	vii

POLICE DIARIES (STATEMENTS, REPORTS & INVESTIGATION)

CHAPTER I

GENERAL INTRODUCTION

SYNOPSIS

1. Police Diary—What is?	4
2. FIR is not substantive piece of evidence.	6
3. FIR is not an encyclopedia.	6
4. Anti-Timing of FIR—Section 154—FIR.	6
5. Cognizable offence.	7
6. Police has no right to refuse, registration of a case on information.	7
7. Cognizance or non-cognizable offence—Procedure for.	7
8. "Committed in the course of the same transaction".	7
9. Confessional FIR—Murder case.	8
10. Course of investigation.	8
11. Critical condition.	9
12. Duty of police.	9
13. Duty of Police Officer.	9
14. Duty of Prosecution.	10
15. Dying declaration.	10
16. Encounters.	10
17. Enquiry.	10
18. Examination of all witnesses by prosecution.	10
19. Examination of witnesses.	11
20. Police investigation thereunder.	11
21. Police, obtaining permission of Magistrate to investigate a non-cognizable offence, submitted 'B' summary report.	11
22. Police officer-in-charge.	12
23. Police of one police station can cause a search to be made at any place in the limits of another police station when the requisition is made to that effect by such police station.	12
24. Police party having reached for investigation of earlier incident of the day.	13

POLICE DIARIES (STATEMENTS, REPORTS & INVESTIGATION)

25. Police statements.	13
26. Police Officer cannot investigate a non-cognizable offence on his own as in the case of cognizable offence, he can investigate a non-cognizable offence under the order of a Magistrate having power to try such non-cognizable case or commit the same for trial within the terms under Section 155(2) of the Code but subject to Section 155(3) of the Code.	13
27. Police report, filing of.	13
28. Default in case of the prosecution—What amounts to?	17
29. Absence of any indication about the fact of 'read over' of the FIR to the informant.	17
30. Accused's handwriting opinion.	17
31. Report sent to Magistrate.	18
32. Appeal against acquittal.	18
33. Appearance of accused before Court.	18
34. Application to direct investigation.	18
35. Application to register the case and investigate the case.	18
36. Approver.	19
37. A retracted statement of the first informant is not by itself sufficient to throw the case of the prosecution lock, stock and barrel.	19
38. Arrest during police investigation.	19
39. Arrested male or female.	20
40. Assault by accused by sword and knife.	20
41. Awakening to confessioner by Magistrate about consequences of confession while recording his statement.	21
42. Ban to use the statement for corroboration as a substantive evidence.	21
43. Basis of the allegations made in the complaint.	21
44. Basis of FIR.	21
45. Bofor's case—Quashing of FIR.	22
46. Cause of death and fixing of liability different.	22
47. Charge.	22
48. Charge-sheet.	23
49. Choice of accused to contradict witnesses.	24
50. Cogent explanation of delay to be placed before Court.	24
51. Cognizable taken by the Magistrate on complaint.	24
52. Cognizance of offence.	24

53. Commencement of the investigation.	27
54. Commission of cognizable offence.	27
55. Competency to take cognizance on its basis is challenged, the trial Court shall decide it in accordance with.	28
56. Complaint.	28
57. Compulsive bail—In action or delayed action of the Court in extending the benefit thereof would make it nugatory.	29
58. Confessional statement.	30
59. Criminal case pending against three accused persons.	31
60. Criminal Trial.	32
61. Cross-examination of witnesses.	32
62. Cryptic telephonic message.	32
63. Custodial death.	33
64. Date of arrest.	33
65. Deficiency in investigation.	33
66. Delay in despatch of the FIR.	34
67. Delay in investigation.	37
68. Delay in lodging FIR.	37
69. Delay in sending FIR to Magistrate.	46
70. Delay in the criminal case.	47
71. Delay in trial.	47
72. Diary of proceedings in investigation and general diary.	47
73. Direction by Magistrate to police to register and investigate.	49
74. Direction to register and investigate case.	49
75. Despatch of FIR.	49
76. Disclosing cognizance offence.	49
77. Disclosing commission of cognizable offence.	50
78. Disposal of bail application filed under Section 167(2), Cr PC.	50
79. Disposal of property.	51
80. Driving by drunken person—Investigation of offence of.	51
81. Duty of Court.	51
82. Duty of Magistrate.	52
83. Essential features.	52
84. Exercise of power.	52
85. FIR—Murder case.	55
86. FIR—Recording of.	55
87. Further investigation.	55

88. Investigation of offence under Section 185 of M.V. Act—Without order of Magistrate.	61
89. Limited enquiry.	62
90. Hearing pre-registration of an FIR.	62
91. Jurisdiction—Question of.	62
92. Lodging FIR and question of delay.	62
93. Magistrate after disposing of the case on receipt of the police report, is fully competent to deal with the complaint.	63
94. Magistrate can order investigation under Section 156(3).	63
95. Magistrate has power to forward complaint to police for investigation.	64
96. Magistrate would not be justified in taking cognizance on the basis of the complaint in respect of the same facts constituting the offences which were mentioned in the final form.	64
97. Mere omission of details in FIR.	64
98. Minimum punishment provided for.	64
99. Minor discrepancy.	65
100. Minor infirmity, value of.	65
101. Minor omission in public report.	65
102. Minor variations not termed to be embellishment and concoction.	65
103. Mistake of fact.	66
104. Mutual fight.	66
105. Lodging of two FIRs is permissible.	66
106. Non-cognizable offence—Investigation—Jurisdiction of.	66
107. Non-examination of the scribe of the FIR.	67
108. Non-proving of contention of the FIR.	67
109. Offence of cruelty and demand of dowry.	67
110. Police report.	67
111. Pre-registration of an FIR.	67
112. Right of hearing at the time of registration of FIR.	68
113. Same day lodged FIR.	68
114. "Same transaction".	68
115. Second FIR—Impermissibility of.	68
116. Separate FIR.	69
117. Two FIRs—Lodging of.	69
118. Six hours' delay in lodging FIR—Could not make the case untrue.	70